OF KENTUCKY.

SAMUEL P. HILL, of COLUMBIA.

Districts:
1st District, WM. F. MARTIN, of Pasquotank;

THE DEMOCRATIC JUBILEE.

The Democrats of this Town, with a few of our friends from the country, had a regular jollification on Wednesday night last over the late brilliant Democratic triumph which made Know-Nothingism white the dust in the old North State. They formed in procession just in front of the "Pioneer" office, a cannon, mounted with a large and beautiful transparency, in the van—and, with a number of torch-lights and transparencies, marched through the streets and made the welkin ring with loud cheers of glorious triumph. After the procession had marched and counter-marched for a while, it made a halt in front of Williams' Hotel, which was handsomely illuminated, and called out J. P. Jordan and W. C. Hunter, Esqs., respectively, each of whom appeared and responded in speeches of indisputable facts and stirring eloquence. Meanwhile, the cannon commenced thundering forth her loud booming in one quarter of the Town, which was presently responded to by another stationed in a different direction, and thus continued alternately to fire broadside after broadside into the "rotten hulk of Know-Nothingism," until a late hour in the night—the Democrats full of enthusiasm and delight, cheering and huzzabing, while the poor K. N.'s had to "grin and bear it."

Many of the houses—the Democratic houses—were brilliantly and beautifully illuminated; and the precinct which gave Hanney 45 majority was alive with the true fire of Democracy. The old spirit of our party is aroused, and the enthusiasm of Wednesday night was but an augury of the zeal with which our people will go into the fight on the 4th of November next, when "Sam" will be buried so low that nothing short of a requisition upon the authorities of another country will ever enable him to "turn up again."

Four years ago, Mr. Fillmore was rudely pushed aside to make room for Gen. Scott, because of the greater availability of the latter as a presidential candidate. Scott only got four States in the Union. Now, the same man take up Fillmore again, who was then set aside for want of availability, and pretend that he will do great things! If Scott was more available than Fillmore, and yet only carried four States out of thirty-one, we think it will puzzle K. N. arithmeticians to figure out a single State that Fillmore will get.

The Know-Nothing slang-whangere affect a great distaste for the horrible Buchanan because (as they allege) he defamed the character of Clay, by charging him with bargain and corruption. But they are tender as sucking doves towards Andrew Jackson Donelson, who at a public meeting proposed nine cheers for Linn Boyd, who (said Donelson) "had charged and proved upon Mr. Clay, in his place in Congress, the charge of bargain, intrigue and corruption!" These K. N.'s "strain at a gnat and swallow a camel!"

COUNTY SOLICITOR.

Mr. F. M. Charles was elected Solicitor for Pasquotank County, by the Court, on Tuesday last, in place of Mr. John Pool, whose term of office we believe had expired, and who had been elected to the Senate. The "balance of power" was held by the Democrats; and, there being no Democratic candidate in the field, they voted for Mr. Charles.

SALT.

Alexander Forsythe, Esq., of Rum Cay, Bahamas Island, writes to us, as a matter of interest to our merchants and shippers, that salt is quite abundant in that quarter; and, as money is scarce, that it will be sold at very low figures.

Hon. David S. Reid will please accept our thanks for a copy of the report of the Secretary of the Treasury on the Commerce and Navigation of the United States for the year 1855.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE, for October, has been received—an excellent No. "The inconvenience of Single Life" is a gem in its way, and worth the year's subscription.

FACTS SPEAK LOUDER THAN WORDS.

The boy may whistle to keep his courage up while passing through the graveyard at the hour of midnight—but still he is frightened. And the Know-Nothings may endeavor to rally the courage of their awe-stricken forces, by bragging and boasting loudly of what they intend to do! But their puny, sickly voices are drowned by the thunder-tones of popular sentiment in behalf of the Democracy, as proclaimed by all the late elections at the South. One good, hard, solid fact is worth more than all the gasconade and braggadocio that ever emanated from the gaseous reservoir of Know-Nothingism. Just such a good, hard, solid fact, is that which proclaims the voice of the South in favor of Democracy. All the Southern States that have recently spoken, voted the Democratic ticket—that's a stern fact. The people marched up to the polls, and, in the exercise of the highest prerogative of freemen, cast their suffrages for Democracy and against Know-Nothingism—that's as true as gospel preaching. By their votes, they gave actual governmental power to Democracy, and put their heels firmly upon the neck of Know-Nothingism; and the people see and feel that this is a substantial, positive and incontrovertible fact. There sit the Democratic Governors in the Chairs of State—and there the Democratic Legislators in the halls of legislation—in bodily possession of the functions of Government—wielding the power and drawing the pay of their respective stations. This is a "substantive fact"—an obstinate fact—a Gibraltar fact.

And now do these Know-Nothing gasbags expect to overcome this fact by mere windy declamation—vox et preterea nihil? Will their mere say-so be sufficient to convince the people that you can dart a straw through the moon, or that the rock-bound shore will give way before the splashing spray? Nonsense! The people are not bereft of their wits; and they are not fools enough to believe that the Know-Nothings are doing anything in the way of progress while the Democrats have gotten possession of all the substantial positions of power and place.

ALABAMA.

The Hon. Luke Pryor, the defeated Know Nothing candidate for the U. S. Senate, in this State, and an elector for Fillmore, has renounced his allegiance to Know Nothingism, and come out openly for Buchanan as the hope of the South.

Col. Percy Walker and Hon. Luke Pryor were the two leading spirits of Know Nothingism in Alabama, and the influence of these statesmen for Democracy will be felt in November.

VOICE ON THE ARMY APPROPRIATION BILL.

Twenty Northern members of the House voted to concur with the Senate, in striking the Black Republican revolutionary proviso from the Army Appropriation Bill, viz:—Messrs. Cadwalader, Denver, Florence, Fuller, of Maine, Hall, of Iowa, Harris, of Illinois, Scott Harrison, of Ohio, Haven-Hickman, Kelly, Marshall, of Illinois, Miller, of Indiana, Packer, Peck, Tyson, Vail, Wells, Jr., Wheeler, Whitney, and Williams—16 Democrats and 4 Americans.

While sixteen Northern Democrats voted with the South on this occasion, thus evincing their nationality, only four Know Nothings from the same section did so. The K. N.'s boasted that they had swept the North—now see the result: only four of their immense sweep could be found to act with the South in a crisis threatening the very existence of the Union! Although we have the few Democrats in Congress from the North, where the K. N.'s boasted they had carried almost everything, yet of that few we must find four to their one on the side of nationality. Let Southern men look at these things!

THE FUSION BETWEEN THE FREMONTISTS AND FILLMORENES STILL GOING AHEAD IN PENNSYLVANIA.

The following paragraph appears in the Baltimore Sun of the 29th inst:—
POLITICAL MATTERS.—The Fillmore and Fremont men of York county, Pa., have nominated the following ticket:—Associate Judge, Samson Smith; Assembly, B. H. Messer, Nicholas Seitz, W. Johnson; Commissioner, Henry Marshall; Director of the Poor, Henry Lanning; Auditor, Gabriel Stover; County Surveyor, William Streich; Prosecuting Attorney, H. Clay Allen.

On Tuesday evening, Major McPhail of Baltimore, and French S. Evans of Washington city, addressed a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Fillmore men of York, Pa.

This extract shows that the fusion still goes on, between the friends of Fremont and Fillmore, in the Keystone State.—These persons understand each other fully, and in order to defeat the Democratic party they are forming a cordial union in support of the same candidates for Congressional and county offices. They have already united on a ticket for State offices, and are vying with each other in the support of these men, and in their efforts to elect them.

AN ACTING SECRETARY OF THE NAVY.

Chas. W. Welch, Esq., chief clerk of the Navy Department, has been appointed by the President acting secretary thereof, in the temporary absence of Mr. Secretary Dobbin, who has gone to his home in N. Carolina to recuperate his health. Mr. D. will probably be absent some time.

A TELEGRAPHIC FORGERY PROVED.

Speaking of the late election in Arkansas, the Little Rock True Democrat says:—
The vote is the heaviest ever polled, and the proportion about two to one. Our triumph is unprecedented! Out of a vote of some thirty-five or forty thousand, the majority of Elias N. Conway, the Democratic candidate for Governor, will be ten, if not twelve thousand. We have elected, by overwhelming majorities, both our candidates for Congress; we have elected every one of the Circuit Judges; we have elected every one of the Prosecuting Attorneys; we have elected twelve out of thirteen, if not the whole thirteen, State Senators; we have elected sixty-two or three of the seventy-five members of the General Assembly; and, finally, we have elected more than three-fourths of the sheriffs, clerks and other county officers. And yet this is the State which the telegraphic wires asserted had gone by an overwhelming majority against the Democrats to the great joy of the Fremont papers, which printed the gross misstatement, and have never yet corrected it!!

The same remark will apply to the K. N. papers of the South, many of which appear to be playing into the hands of the Fremont party. They have never corrected this enormous telegraphic falsehood.

FROM THE WARRENTON NEWS.

A PROPOSED BET OF $1000.

Mr. Editor: The Know Nothing party, not satisfied with their overwhelming defeat, seem disposed to brag, boast, and to make propositions to bet on the Presidential election. I have determined to afford to each desire to wager their money on the election of Fillmore an opportunity to back their judgments or to crawl. I will bet $200 that Mr. Buchanan will be elected the next President of the United States; $100 that he will carry the State of North Carolina by a majority of 15,000 votes; $200 that Fillmore will not get five States; $200 that he will not get three Southern States; $100 that he will not get one Southern State in the Union; $300 that the party taking the bet can name one Northern and one Southern State that Fillmore will carry. The amount—$1000—to be deposited in the State Bank of North Carolina, and the certificate of deposit to be placed in the hands of a mutual friend to be named by the Editor of the Warrenton News.

A DEMOCRAT.

INCONSISTENCY.

In the present crisis—albeit a rather ultra party man—we are but little disposed to excite party feelings, or indulge in political asperity. In fact, while Black Republicanism seems threatening a rupture of the government, we would willingly set aside purely party politics. Not so with our Fillmore contemporaries. The Virginia, of Saturday, publishes, with an editorial endorsement, the letter of the Black Republican Blair, charging Mr. Buchanan with complicity in the Bargain and Intrigue allegation against Mr. Clay. The Virginia supports for Vice President Andrew J. Donelson, who has charged Mr. Clay with bargain and corruption a thousand times who was brought up by Gen. Jackson to tell us—and who in a public meeting, moved and agitated by Linn Boyd, of Ky., for his speech called so the evidences to prove it. This is consistency with a vengeance.

THE SHOOTING AFFAIR AT GOLDSBORO.

We have not previously alluded to the unfortunate affair at Goldsboro on Saturday last—the shooting of Wm. Robinson, Esq., by Wm. T. Dortch, Esq., as we presume it must become a matter of judicial investigation, and we were fearful lest we might impart incorrect impressions on the subject. As, however, the affair has got into the papers, we feel at liberty to give the circumstances as they have been told to us, without note or comment.—On Saturday evening, near sunset, Mr. Dortch was sitting on the steps of Griswold's Hotel with a double-barrelled gun between his legs. Mr. Robinson passed out of the door of the Hotel and proceeded to cross the street, and had got as far as the track of the Railroad, when Mr. Dortch fired one barrel and immediately the other at him, lodging the contents in his arm, side and back. How, or in what position Mr. Robinson stood or was placed towards Mr. Dortch, when the latter fired, we cannot tell, neither can we ascertain that any words had very recently passed between the parties, at least not on that evening.—After receiving the second load, Mr. Robinson fell. He was raised, carried to a physician's office and subsequently home.

The Goldsboro Tribune, bearing date this morning, says "Mr. Robinson is now confined to his room and suffering intense agony, although none of his wounds are considered as dangerous. It is doubtful, however, whether he will ever recover the perfect use of his left arm, which is now completely paralyzed. His body is severely mangled."

The gun must, of course, have been loaded with shot. It is known to all who know anything about the parties, that Messrs. Robinson and Dortch have been enemies for a length of time, and no doubt their estrangement was increased and their feelings towards each other embittered by events growing out of the recent election for members of the Legislature. It is a bad business and deeply to be regretted.

We need hardly say, that the excitement in Goldsboro was very intense for some days, and is yet hardly cooled down.

[W. Journal.]

BUCHANAN IN KENTUCKY.—We have seen a private letter from an intelligent and reliable gentleman of Louisville, Kentucky, to a friend in this place, which states with entire confidence that Buck and Preck will carry Kentucky by at least 10,000 majority. Bets, he says, are freely taken on 5,000 majority.—Lynchburg Rep.

THE ADJOURNMENT OF CONGRESS.

THE ARMY BILL PASSED—THE CONSTITUTION TRIUMPHANT—THE PRESIDENT VINDICATED—THE FALL OF THE CONSPIRATORS—THE EVIL ONE IN THE DUST.

Every announcement we here make is true, and will carry a thrill of joy to the remotest parts of our Union.

The army bill, (says the Washington Union) passed Saturday evening by a majority of four votes. The conspirators are utterly broken down. The constitution is saved, revolution is rebuked, and the course of the President vindicated. It is not only a total change of the aspect which was before us, but it may be received as an unquestionable assurance of the final overthrow of the enemies of our institutions. Never, in our history, has there been a more anxious time. Each particular element of the occasion has been, in turn, the subject of discussion.

When Congress first met, for the extra session, there were some of our friends who doubted the wisdom of the policy pursued by the President. It was a doubt expressed in the best terms of faith and confidence, and therefore, springing from the right spirit, was soon removed. Our enemies were unmeasured in their abuse and denunciations of the President; but, guided by a sense of duty, he acted as a patriot ought always to do, and summoned Congress back to the discharge of the high trust committed to them by their constituents. A factious majority of black republicans, varying from one to three, had steadily refused to vote for the army appropriation bill, except with an unconstitutional and arbitrary proviso. In the face of all these discouraging circumstances, the President met the crisis, and we owe our present triumph to his firmness and his sagacity. It reminds us of the truth, that from the first assembling of Congress in December until the hour in which we write, his civic pathway has been lined with brilliant triumphs. He began by rebuking conspirators, and he has closed by a signal triumph over their fall. These are recorded honors which will live in the grateful hearts of his countrymen.

The following is the vote of the House on the Army Bill without the proviso:

Aiken, Akers, Barksdale, Bell, Bennett of Mississippi, Boock, Bowie, Boyce, Branch, Burnett, Cadwalader, Campbell of Kentucky, Canine, Caskey, Clingman, Cobb of Georgia, Cobb of Alabama, Cox, Craig, Crawford, Cullen, Davidson, Davis of Maryland, Denver, Dowell, Edmondson, Elliott, Etheridge, Eustis, Evans, Faulkner, Florence, Fuller of Maine, Gooch, Greenwood, Hall of Iowa, Harris of Maryland, Harris of Alabama, Hickman, Hoffman, Houston, Jewett, Jones of Tennessee, Jones of Pennsylvania, Keitt, Kelly, Kennett, Kilgill, Lake, Leche, Lumpkin, A.
